

Oppenhoff

Chile's Green Hydrogen – Current developments and opportunities for German SMEs

October 28, 2021, 4.00 pm CET

The event will be held physically and virtually.

Please register for both options here: <https://bwhydro21.hspk.de/>

3.30 pm	Registration and Welcome Coffee Location: Literaturhaus Stuttgart Breitscheidstraße 4, 70174 Stuttgart Hygiene concept: 3G, masks during the event, 1.5m distance between seats
4.00 pm	Opening Baden-Württemberg International Jorge O’Ryan, General Director of ProChile , „Exporte Promotion Agency of Chile“
4.10 - 4.30 pm	Introduction to Chile's Energy Sector: Chile's Green Hydrogen Strategy Max Correa, Head of the Fuels and New Energy Division Ministry of Energy, Government of Chile
4.30 - 4.50 pm	Baden-Württemberg's Green Hydrogen Strategy Bernd Reuter, Head of the Hydrogen, Resource Efficiency and Bioeconomy Unit Ministry of the Environment of Baden-Württemberg

4.50 – 5.10 pm	Legal framework and legal requirements in Chile Edder Cifuentes, Partner Oppenhoff & Partner
5.10 – 5.30 pm	Testimonial of a Baden-Württemberg company doing business in Chile in in the Green Hydrogen Sector Dr. Achim Stuible, Projects Director Energy Economics and Hydrogen Matthias Schlegel, Head of Hydrogen Energy Economics and Hydrogen Fichtner GmbH & Co.KG
5.30 – 6.00 pm	Financing and funding opportunities for Green Hydrogen projects in Chile Andrea Mohr, Deputy Manager of Programs and Strategic Development Corfo-Chilean Economic Development Agency
6.00 – 6.30 pm	The case of the pilot project HIF Andreas Eisfelder, Head of New Energy Business Latin America Siemens Energy Karl Dums, Head of Electric Drive Strategy Porsche AG
6.30 – 6.45pm	Q&A, Closing Remarks
	Possible Networking (Literaturhaus)

Subject to change as of September 13, 2021

Physically:

Literaturhaus Stuttgart, Breitscheidstraße 4, 70174 Stuttgart

Maximum capacity: 37 Pax

Hygiene concept: 3G, mask during event, 1.5m distance between seats

Virtually:

Please join our event virtually. The platform aims at providing information on Green Hydrogen topics in Chile and Baden-Württemberg and at initiating cooperation projects and provide networking opportunities between companies and organisations of both states.